BISHOPWEARMOUTH CHORAL SOCIETY

70th Anniversary Season

An Exploration of Creation

A Singing Day

Saturday February 9th 2019

directed by Aidan Oliver &

accompanied by Eileen Bown

in Sunderland Minster, SR1 3ET

www.bishopwearmouth.co.uk

Charity No. 507109

We invite you to join BCS in a Singing Day to celebrate our 70th Season

Bishopwearmouth Choral Society was founded in 1948 and gave its first performance, Haydn's Creation, in March 1949 in the then Bishopwearmouth Church

As part of our 70th Birthday celebrations we shall again perform Creation on Saturday March 30th 2019 at 7.30 p.m. in the same venue, now known as Sunderland Minster.

We hope that this Singing Day will allow us to explore this work together in an informal way.

Aidan Oliver is one of the UK's leading choir directors, whose activities encompass the full range of symphonic, operatic, liturgical and contemporary music.

He is the founding director of Philharmonia Voices, the professional choir which collaborates with the Philharmonia Orchestra on many of its most ambitious projects, while as guest chorus master he has worked with some of the UK's leading choirs including the BBC Symphony

Chorus, BBC Singers, Huddersfield Choral Society and the Chorus of English National Opera.

He is currently the director of Dulwich Choral Society and Director of Music at St Margaret's Church, Westminster Abbey, as well as Associate Conductor of the St Endellion Festival in Cornwall. He was recently appointed the new director of the Edinburgh Festival Chorus.
